CBSE Board New Delhi declared Class XII result on 13th July 2020. All the students proved it beyond any doubt that when efforts are determined, constant, consistent and disciplined, success can't elude us for long. All the 24 students got through the examination securing first division. The result was 100%. Among these 24 achievers Shruti Pandharipande achieved a new milestone. She has certainly emerged as a strong source of inspiration for all the students of the school by securing 94.6% marks. It was with her diligence, discipline, dedication and devotion towards her studies that she could do so well. Sanjana Yadav is another persevering student of the school. She made the optimum use of her time and secured 92% marks. Her success will surely urge several other students to come out of their comfort zone and do well in their studies. Aryan Tiwari of class XII Science is a quiet, focussed and passionate student of the school. All these qualities have made him an academic achiever. He has secured 88% marks in class XII examination. Khushi Rajput of Commerce Stream is also an exceptional achiever of the school. She too has immense potential that she has shown in class XII examination by securing 86.6% marks. She has made us feel proud. Shivam Raghuvanshi is another such student of the school who pursues a high goal and this pursuit of a high goal has made him an academic excelsior. He secured 86.2% marks. Unnati Joshi, has put herself on the way to glorious achievements. She is one such student who has it in her to carve a niche for herself in this competitive world. She has got 85.5% marks. Manish, Anugya, Vishal and Akash have also brought laurels to the school by securing more than 80% marks. All these students worked all through the year with utmost dedication. They remained relentless in their endeavours and therefore they earned this score.

Rest of the students have also shown remarkable improvement. They have all made a wonderful headway and have proved their merit and mettle by doing so well in their examination.

Confidence level of all the students is high; their spirits are soaring and their goal is clear. They will surely compete well and succeed for sure in all their future pursuits.

This amazing achievement of the students could become possible with the planned, persevering and sustained efforts of all the teachers. They worked in unison with single-minded devotion to enable, enrich and empower the students. All the teachers of the school went an extra mile to extend their support to the students. They worked on the fundamental as well as the finer aspects of all the subjects. Each child of the school got personalized attention of the teachers. They always exuded compassion and thus they could strike a good rapport with students and could keep them all in the inspired frame of mind. The entire team is committed, competent and conscientious.
