

WEBINAR REPORT

DATE : 4th JUNE, 2020. [11:30am to 01:30pm]
ORGANISED BY : MIT UNIVERSITY PUNE INDIA
THEME : SUSTAINABLE DEVELOPMENT GOALS-POST COVID 19
DISTINGUISHED PENALIST : 1-Dr RAJENDRA SHENDE [chairman TERRE policy centre,
2-Prof Dr Mangesh T Karad {Eminent Educationist & Executive
President -MIT University}
3-Suraj Bhoyar [MIT University]
ATTENDED BY : NAYYER A KHAN

A Webinar on Sustainable Development Goals-Post Covid 19, was organized on 4th June, 2020. This webinar attended by more than 290 participants, was about students of universities and varied institutions who was caught and torn between lockdown life and social distancing. How universities and institution can leverage the crisis into building the careers of youth of India was the main theme of discussion.

Dr Rajendra Shende throw light on 17 sustainable development goals, which are world's best blueprint to build a better world for all our planet by 2030.these goals span from ending poverty to improving our planet's ecosystem and each country is striving to meet these goals was deeply discussed.

Prof Dr Mangesh T Karad talked about the India's youth expectations for prosperous and sustainable lifestyle which is now caught by unpredicted, unprecedented COVID 19. He advised the youth and provide certain solutions how to utilize this opportunity and prepared for future.

It was really enriching and informative webinar session.

PREPARED BY : NAYYER A KHAN