

QUIT INDIA MOVEMENT'

Date: 9th August 2024

Bal Bharati Public School Neelbad, Bhopal, held a special morning assembly on August 9th to celebrate the anniversary of the Quit India Movement, during which primary students eagerly participated in a tribute to India's freedom movement. The event aimed to develop patriotism and a better grasp of Indian history among the young minds.

The assembly featured primary children costumed as historic liberation warriors such Mahatma Gandhi, Jawaharlal Nehru, Subhas Chandra Bose, and Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel. The students not only dressed the traditional garb associated with these figures, but they also embodied the spirit of the independence movement via their passionate speeches.

Students took turns reciting iconic slogans associated with the liberation heroes they played. The air was filled with echoes of "Angrezo Bharat Choro" by the youthful Gandhis, "Give me blood, and I will give you freedom!" by the Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose look-alikes, and "Inquilab Zindabad!" sung fervently by the students. The historical-themed slogans were spoken with gusto, allowing the kids to connect with the emotions and drive that drove India's independence movement.

The Quit India Movement special assembly was a dynamic and instructive event that commemorated a significant time in India's history while also allowing children to actively engage in commemorating and honoring independence fighters. The young pupils left the assembly feeling more patriotic and proud of India's hard-won independence, inspired by the courageous men and women who battled for the country's freedom.
