

Encouraging students to learn by doing.

Experience-based learning motivates children, helps them appreciate practical relevance of classroom concepts, enhances internalisation and retention, and inculcates important life skills. We practise it through projects, group activities, internships, community service - all of which involve hands-on experiences and reflection.

